UYN MAN FUSYON DEFENDER UW PANTS LONG

Code: UYN-U100308

Brand: UYN

Thermoregulation is their mission, protecting the most exposed areas their added value. The FUSYON DEFENDER pants are made from extra-fine Merino wool for effective insulation: they warm the body at low temperatures, wick away sweat quickly and keep the skin dry. The fabric's special manufacturing technique creates protective zones at thighs and buttocks for maximum comfort in all the situations adventure throws at you.

- Coolvent: the channelled inner surface promotes a constant flow of air. It quickly absorbs sweat, cools the body during activity and keeps the skin dry.
- Heatmemory: insulating air chambers store body heat and protect against cooling. This is especially important when your muscles cool down after the exercise phase. Your body stays warm and efficient.
- Resifit: knees joints are subject to high levels of stress during exercise. This is why these areas are enclosed with a three- dimensional chamber system in order to create an insulating layer of air around the joints.
- Drylight: anywhere sweat accumulates, Drylight ensures wearing comfort. Thanks to its more permeable, ultra- absorbent knitting technique, moisture is quickly transported outwards.
